

Seminar: What Does a Conductor

Start Date: 2/10/2025 5:00 PM

End Date: 2/10/2025 6:00 PM

Heads up, opera aficionados! Maestro James Conlon is switching things up for this event. Forget the double feature—there's now a single, can't-miss talk at 5 pm. Mark your calendars for a streamlined evening of insight and entertainment with one of opera's finest!

Seminar: What Does a Conductor (Actually) Do?

with James Conlon

Monday, February 10, 2025

Ebell of Los Angeles, 743 S Lucerne Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90005

NEW TIME: 5pm / ONE presentation only.

Ever wondered what mysteries lie behind the conductor's baton? Join James Conlon, LA Opera Music Director and one of America's premier conductors, as he demystifies the role in "What Does a Conductor (Actually) Do?" This enlightening presentation will explore the skills, techniques, and leadership qualities essential for orchestrating a successful performance. Whether you're an avid opera fan or a curious newcomer, this event promises to offer invaluable insights into the world of music direction.

Don't miss this opportunity to peek behind the curtain and understand the true art of conducting.

Tickets at $15.00

Location(s)

Ebell of Los Angeles
743 S. Lucerne Blvd.
President's Tea Room, 3rd floor
Los Angeles
California